Our name is on every lip; our location in every eye; our success the subject of general comment. There's not in the State a more popular store, nor, for its size, a busier store, than ours, and every day adds to its growth and prosperity. You seek the cause? You'll find it in our close adhesion to the inflexible rule of right. We never deviate from that rule. Our goods are right. our prices are right, and we guarantee they are right, and an intelligent community appreciate to trade where everything is right. That is why welhave their confidence. This season we are offering Better Goods, at Lower Prices, than we have ever been able to offer before, and the increase in our trade speaks public appreciation.

In Boys' and Children's Wear we have three times the assortment we ever had in store. We have run away ahead of last season's sales. And though a trifle early for Men's Heavy Clothing, the gains are very clear. We have over One Thousand New, Stylish Overcoats. In Montinacs, Chinchillas, Kerseys, Meltons, Cheviots, and tasteful weavings in Scotch fabrics, our display is absolutely unsurpassed. You'll find our prices HONEST, and that means everything any reasonable buyer can expect. Inspection is necessary to appreciate what we say of them.

We give with every $20 purchase, a Bradbury Encyclopædia of Practical Information and Universal Formula.

The Balmiest Christmas Known for many Years.

Christmas amusements in portions of the "north temperate zone" this year were considerably "out of ordinary." At Chicago they had a pigeon shoot; at Albert Lea, up in Minnesota, boating, baseball and other out door sports were enjoyed; at Findlay, Ohio, a black snake was killed running along the road as lively as in June, and the frogs croaked in the ponds; at Crawfordsville, Ind., they had lawn tennis and foot ball; at Kansas City, besides base ball and tennis, the girls played croquet on the lawn. And so on. In Ottawa pansey boquets were picked in the open air on Christmas and sweet briar bushes, mistaking the date, are leating out for April.
